Ibiza's Unique Destination Points

Ibiza is the mirror of the Hispanic society. Its striving economy attracts people from all over Spain and Latin America. In Ibiza the main language stays Spanish with all its different accents: Andalusian, Northern Spanish and the different Latin American accents.

Ibiza is maybe the most beautiful island in the Mediterranean. It offers 54 of the most beautiful beaches within 15-20 minutes travel time. Small empty beaches, long white beaches with many people and relaxed beach bars and hidden bays you can discover day by day.

Its longest extension is 34km and the island in total has 132.000 inhabitants. This number triples in July and August. Ibiza Town has 50.000 inhabitants. Ibiza is a rural place with mainly small villages.

The world famous nightlife is located outside Ibiza Town on a beach called Playa d'en Bossa, during the summer months in San Antonio and the biggest clubs are some 7 km outside Ibiza Town in the countryside in order to guarantee a low noise level in the city. By this Ibiza Town maintains its unique Mediterranean and mainly Spanish atmosphere within the city and its beautiful port.
